Dear Sir or Madam:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation on Friday, September 19, 2003, please find enclosed my check for $150.00 along with a copy of my 2003 Uniform Business Report that I mailed on April 25, 2003.

As I explained during our telephone conversation, I mailed the original report on April 25, 2003 along with my check number 1156 for $150.00. I had never received the original UBR do to my address changing so I originally filed a completed UBR which I downloaded from your website, I have attached a copy of what I mailed in April to this letter. When I received the second notice, I immediately called my bank to verify if the check had cleared. My bank told me the check was still outstanding.

I respectfully request the penalty for late filing be abated due to circumstances stated above and my Corporation be restored to an active status. Thank you for your assistance in this very important matter.

Sincerely,

Vince Worthington
