Dear Sirs

In reference to you letter dated June 17th 2005, I am asking you to waive the late fees because of the following reason. I received this notice from you originally when it was already late, my business has moved and it obviously has gotten lost in the mail. As soon as I did receive it I paid the 150.00 fee for my renewal of the corporation. Please consider this I am begging you... My business is suffering enough with the move and now this would greatly put me in jeopardy.

You have my $150.00 check now and please go ahead and deposit it asap.

Please let me know asap what your decision is.

With warm regards

Ellen Supnick
