Re: Doc # P02000076916

To whom it may concern,

Attached is a copy of my original waiver request filed in July of this year, and a copy of my check (Compass Bank #181) written on the 15th of the same month, which was cashed and cleared my bank on July 22nd. My accountant and I have both made several telephone calls, and had been assured that your department had numerous new employees, but that we had submitted the proper paperwork to rectify this situation. Last week I received a Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation for failure to submit a UBR and pay the appropriate fee. I have again called and been assured that all I need to supply is a copy of the original waiver request letter, which is enclosed, along with a copy of my original UBR, and my bank statement showing my check to you with what appears to be your control number located above the date.

Coincidentally, my partner who resides at the same address, did not receive a annual UBR this year either. We use the same accountant, and submitted the same waiver form, sent the same day, and had no acceptance problems. If you need any further documentation, please do not hesitate to contact me at any of the following phone numbers.

Sincerely,

David S. Potter, P.A.
