EIGHTH: The original incorporators of the corporation shall have the right upon its organization, to assign and deliver their subscriptions of stock as set forth in Article VII hereof to any other person, or to firms or corporations who may hereafter become subscribers to the capital stock of the Corporation, who, upon acceptance of such assignment, shall stand in lieu of the original incorporators, and assume and carry out all the rights, liabilities and duties entailed by said subscriptions, subject to the Laws of the State of Florida, and the execution of the necessary instruments of assignment.

NINTH: The number of Directors of the Corporation may be increased or decreased to not less than one (1) as may be provided by the By-Laws. The By-Laws may prescribe the number of Directors necessary to constitute a quorum of the Board of Directors, which number may be less than the majority of the whole Board of Directors. In case of vacancy in the Board of Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors. In case of any increase of the number of Directors, the additional Directors shall be elected by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

(a) To make, alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of said By-Laws, if any, adopted by the Stockholders, and to all applicable laws.

(b) If the By-Laws so provided, to designate by resolution two or more of their number to constitute an Executive Committee, which Committee, to the extent provided in the resolution or in the By-Laws of the Corporation, shall have and may exercise any or all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business, affairs and property of the Corporation during the intervals between the meetings of the Board of Directors, so far as may be permitted by law.

(c) To determine, from time to time, whether and to what extent and at which times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the Corporation (other than the stock ledger) or any of them shall be open to inspection of stockholders; and no stockholder shall have any right of inspecting any account, book or documents of the Corporation except as conferred by statute, unless authorized by a resolution of the stockholders or Directors.

(d) To fix the amount to be reserved as working capital and to authorize, and cause to be executed, mortgage liens upon the property and franchises of the corporation.

TENTH: The names and post office addresses of the first Board of Directors of this corporation who shall hold office for the first year, or until successors are chosen, are:
