To Whom It May Concern:

In speaking today with your representative, John Shivers, in the Tallahassee office, I was told to provide you with the following information:

I have moved and have had a terrible time with the Post Office and with my mail for quite a while. (It is a long story I shared with Mr. Shivers and he informed me doesn't need to be repeated here.) Finally, I believe it is straightened out. Problem being, I did not receive your notice concerning the UBR filing until this weekend (Saturday July 26th). In addition, I am a new corporation and to be quite honest, this is the first time I have had knowledge of the yearly fee of $150.00. (There are many procedures to learn as a new business owner and I am still learning.)

Enclosed please find my check for the fee of $150.00 and the change of address information that will make my file current. Please accept my apologies in that the fee would certainly have already been addressed had I known this before now. In the future, it will be handled, as it should be.

Also, I want to say Mr. Shivers was extremely competent, helpful, and kind and I do appreciate that.

If there is anything else I need to know concerning this matter, please contact me @727-439-1168.

Thank you very much,

Pz Hopkins
