To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to explain why I have not previously filed my annual business report to your office.

To my knowledge I have never received any correspondence that required this form to be filed and mailed in with a check. This is my first year as a business owner and I simply was not aware of this process. After meeting with my accountant I was certainly made aware of this form. Immediately I mailed the form and the check.

Please understand that there was no intent not to file this form. I ask that you take this into consideration.

I am enclosing this letter along with a copy of the uniform business report that was mailed to your office.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Mike Hurst
