ATTN: Mr. Andy Dunlap

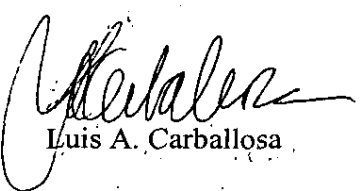

Dear Mr. Dunlap:

I am in receipt of your letter of waiver denial dated September 9, 2003, and as I stated in our conversation today, I did not receive any notice or had notion that I had to pay a fee to keep the corporation open. As I stated, my spouse and I opened this business one year ago we had an accountant that we trusted with all the corporation's documents and he is not around anymore, he never informed me that there was a fee involved to keep the business open.

The UBR filing notice that I submitted was found in a stack of papers left in a box by the previous contracted accountant who is not accountable because he is gone. The said box was opened recently by me to see its contents, and upon review of the UBR document, I acted immediately and sent the fee.

I respectfully request that you reconsider the waiver fee of $ 400.00 dollars, penalty for not filing on time taking in consideration that I was a victim of fraudulent representation on behalf of my ex-accountant. I can assure you that since I am in charge now, this incident will not duplicate.

Respectfully.

Luis A. Carballosa
