ARTICLE VIII
SPECIAL PROVISION

Any action by the Board of Directors of this corporation which is within their power taken at a meeting of such directors shall be for all intents and purposes whether or not lawful notice of said meeting shall have been given to all directors as required by law or by the By-Laws of this corporation, if at any time prior to, during or subsequent to such meeting, all directors shall execute a waiver of notice of such meeting in writing and providing a majority of the directors shall have approved or approved the action taken at such meeting.

When not prohibited by law, any action by the shareholders of this corporation which is within their power taken at a meeting of such shareholders shall be valid for all intents and purposes whether or not lawful notice of said meeting shall have been given to all shareholders as required by law or in the By-Laws of this corporation. If at any time prior to, during or subsequent to such meeting, all shareholders shall execute a waiver of notice of such meeting in writing and providing a majority of the shareholders shall have approved or approve the action taken at such meeting.

When not prohibited by law, any action by the shareholders of this corporation may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all the persons who would be entitled to vote upon such action at a meeting and filed with the secretary of the corporation as part of the corporate records. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the shareholders and may be stated as such in any certificate or document filed with the Department of State of the State of Florida or any other governmental agency of any state, county or nation or with any private organization, corporation, person or persons.

Nothing in this Article shall be construed to allow any action of the Board of Directors to be approved by less than a majority of said directors to be approved by less than a majority of said directors, or wherever a greater vote is required by law or in the By-Laws, by that vote.

Nothing in this Article shall be construed to allow any action of the shareholders to be approved by less than a majority of said shareholders, or wherever a greater vote is required by law or in the By-Laws, by that vote.

ARTICLE IX

INSPECTION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS

The corporation shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the corporation (other than the stock book) or any of them shall be open to inspection of shareholders; and no shareholder shall have any right of inspecting any account, book or document of this corporation except as conferred by statute, unless authorized by a resolution of the shareholders or the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Every officer and director of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation, as permitted by law, against all expenses and liability, including counsel fees reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding to which he may be a party or in which he may become involved by reason of his being or having been an officer or director at the time such expenses are incurred. The forgoing rights of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such officer or director may be entitled.

ARTICLE XI

TELEPHONE MEETING AUTHORIZED

Members of the Board of Directors or of any Executive Committee designated by the Board of Directors in accordance with law shall be deemed present at any meeting of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee, as the case may be, if a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear and be heard by all persons is used.
