Re: The Beanery, Inc./#P02000087274

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter in response to a notice of termination of incorporation of our new business, The Beanery, Inc., for failure to renew. Please be advised that we never received a renewal notice or any instructions that we had to renew. If we had, we would have immediately sent in our renewal notice and fee.

We are just starting out our business and still do not know all of the requirements there are for businesses. We truly thought our accountant would notify us if any renewal was required, since they set up the corporation in the first place. We are trying to build our business on our name, The Beanery, as a solid foundation of which we can build it. Please, if there is any way at all you can overlook our ignorance in this matter, and renew our name at once, we would forever appreciate it. We assure you that it will not happen again!

In anticipation of your forgiveness and renewal of our corporation, we are enclosing a check for the renewal fee. Thanking you in advance for your consideration in this matter, we are

Sincerely yours,

Laura L. Baker, President

Daniel A Baker, Vice-President
