To Whom It May Concern:

I am sending in my Uniform Business Report with the $150. 00 fee for my Corporation 'HATCHMAN ENTERPRISES INC.'. I am late due to military obligations in support of Operation Enduring Freedom which sent me out of the country until mid April. I am the president of our company and as such I handle all of the financial and administrative aspects of the business, therefore the report was overlooked and did not get filed until I returned home and finally got my life back in order. I am very sorry for the delay and now that I have hired an accountant I am sure this will never be an issue again. I am currently serving on active duty with the United States Navy (VR-58, NAS Jacksonville, Fl) and can easily provide you with a copy of my orders during March and April if you need them.

You can reach me at my squadron phone number if you need additional information. I appreciate your consideration in resolving this matter as we are a start up business and cannot afford penalties like this. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Curtis Hatcher
