Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is written with respect to the 2003 Uniform Business Report (UBR) for All State Asphalt Maintenance, Inc., under document number P02000088960 (the "Company").

A thorough search of the Company's records and files did not locate the original UBR. It does not appear, therefore, to have been received by anyone within the Company's office. As soon as the second notice was received at the Company, affirmative measures were taken to ensure compliance.

Enclosed is a company check in the amount of $150.00 (One Hundred Fifty) drawn in favor of the State of Florida in recognition of the UBR fee. It is requested that, for reasonable cause, the late fee penalty be abated.

Your cooperation in processing this matter expeditiously and in favor of the Company is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Harry H. Rabb, CPA

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is written with respect to the 2002 Uniform Business Report (UBR) for All State Asphalt Maintenance, Inc., FEI 52-2373909 (the "Company") and subsequent Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation (the "Notice").

The Company had previously responded to a previous request for UBR and responded by letter dated July 8, 2003 with complete remittance of payment by Company check number 2579 in the amount of $150.00 (One hundred fifty). Copies of the correspondence and of the remitted check are enclosed for your convenience. Further, it has been confirmed by research of the Company's bank records that check number 2579 cleared the Company's bank on July 14, 2003. A copy of the online bank research is included for your review.

It is neither the Company's intent nor its request to be dissolved, either administratively or non-administratively. It is requested, therefore, that, for reasonable cause, the Notice be withdrawn and the Company be reinstated.

Your cooperation in processing this matter expeditiously and in favor of the Company is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Harry H. Rabb, CPA
