Dear Sir:

On April 30, 2003, I mailed the 2003 Uniform Business Report and a check for $150.00. I made a copy of the form and mailed the original to Tallahassee. The check was not deducted from my May or June bank statements. My July statement did not include the deduction. I was not surprised when it wasn't with the May or June transactions. I called your office in July and inquired why my check had not cleared? Tina asked me for the Document # P02000092348. She said that there was no record of our filing and payment. I asked her if she was sure it wasn't laying somewhere. She said it must have been lost in the mail.

Tina told me to write this letter and request that the late charge be waived. She said I could resign the copy I retained and reissue the check. I made a copy and am mailing you the resigned copy. I am enclosing the copies of the documents I originally mailed and a new check. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely;

William Callis
