Dear Steve:

This is to inform you that as of today, March 13, 2006, I am resigning as Vice President of SHP Construction Corporation and I am resigning as Qualifier for SHP Construction Corporation.

I am resigning because you have failed to keep me advised of activities that have caused problems with the customers. You have been doing things without my knowledge. In addition, we have been having disagreements about how to handle customer concerns and how to communicate with customers.

Sincerely,

David S. Daniel
