My name is Josh Gorelick and I am the owner of Gorelick Designs, Inc. I'm writing this letter asking for you to waive my $400 late fee for the filing of my Uniform Business Report (UBR). In January of this year we moved to a new home in a new city and county. We unfortunately had a little problem with some of our mail after we moved and I think maybe the form from earlier in the year was misplaced in the mail. I never received anything about this UBR until last month. I called the corporations office at the department of state and they told me that if I had filed prior to May, 1st the fee would have only been $150, but since I'm filing so late it's now $550. If I had known about this UB Report I would have filed it prior to May. We are a very small company that consists of my wife and I and we have not made that much money this year because of our move and that we have changed our product. I am asking to waive the late fee mainly because we can't really afford it and I honestly didn't know about the Uniform Business Report until just recently. I'm new at having a corporation and since the UBR never came to me back at the beginning of the year I had no idea about it. I am sending in the original fee hoping that you will accept my payment. I promise next year that I will be filing before the first deadline as to avoid this huge late fee.

Also, I am sending a copy of my online registration. I began filing online and before I continued I decided to call the office and that is when I found out about this late fee and $150. I hope there aren't any problems. Please contact as soon as possible if there are.

Thank you,

Josh Gorelick
