To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is because I recently noticed that my corporation was inactive when I checked the status of my corporation on the internet. As of today, I have never received any notification to renew my corporation. This week, I spoke to one of your representative and was instructed to send a letter attached to a reinstatement form with a check for the amount of a total of $300.00. I ask that you please waive the late penalties that are being charged. If you need further information regarding this matter please, do not hesitate to contact me at your earliest convenience.

Thank you.

José J. Sarin,
President
