Dear Persons,

We are writing to submit our 2002 For Profit Corporation Uniform Business Report for our small business, Handyman Sam, Inc.

Handyman Sam, Inc. was incorporated on August 20, 2002 after my husband was laid off from a manufacturing buyer position following a downsizing after September 11, 2001. A job search in his former field was non-productive. As he was always able to do our own home repairs, we developed this business to help make ends meet.

These first few months of incorporation have been hectic, confusing and very expensive, to say the least. Every time we submit a form or license, there is a fee attached, and we have yet to see a profit from our business.

We did not receive any notice that we needed to file the 2002 For Profit Corporation Uniform Business Report before May 1, 2003. As we are only a few days late, enclosed you will find our check for the fee of $150.00.

We hope you will take into consideration our need to conserve our limited funds as you process our UBR. We believed the State of Florida is anxious to encourage the growth of small businesses, however as we are operating on a shoestring budget, any additional fees will put our ability to function as a business in serious jeopardy.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dianne D. Warr

Dianne D. Warr, President
Handyman Sam, Inc.
