Dear Sirs:

As per telephone conversation with one of your officials, we are hereby asking you for the reconsideration of the dissolution of the above named Corporation, with Florida IDP02000094759. Our reason for such a request is that our business is closed every year, for several months during the slow part of area's tourist season, and we never received acknowledgement of any request for information after we paid the 2003 Annual Corporation Fee. As it can be verified, our mail is deposited in a mail box to which anybody can have access, and if it was left there overnight because the person we left in charge of picking could not do it daily, during the months the business was closed, somebody may have taken it, specially kids that wonder a lot in the Daytona Beach area.

We are very sorry of this situation but trying to avoid any problem, we mailed our fee on time and got the surprise now that were ready to mail the 2004 Annual Corporation Fee, as no longer is received through the mail. We take the opportunity to send the check for the 2004 fee and a Copy of the form we filed in 2003 with the information your official told us was missing. We appreciate very much your positive response to our request.

Cordially yours,

X

Anastasios Tsoukalas
President.
