Dear Sir or Madam:

As the Registered Agent for the above Florida Corporation, we are submitting the enclosed Corporation Reinstatement form along with the corporation's payment of $150.00 for 2004.

We request reinstatement of the corporation for 2004 based on the following circumstances:

- 1) The Articles of Incorporation were filed on September 3, 2002, effective September 1, 2002.
- 2) On April 15, 2003 the corporation timely filed and made payment with its 2003 UBR. Attached please find copy of the 2003 UBR and front and back of cancelled check for $150.00, which was deposited by Florida Department of State.
- 3) The corporation never received the Division of Corporations "postcard" with instructions for filing the 2004 UBR.
- 4) We attempted to download and e-file the corporation's 2004 UBR on www.sunbiz.org. However, we received the message "Filing status must be active". We then discovered on sunbiz that the corporation was "dissolved."
- 5) The corporation's officer/director had no reason to believe that the corporation was not in fact active, since the 2003 UBR was timely filed and payment made.
- 6) Since we were unable to obtain for a 2004 UBR for filing for this corporation, we are submitting the enclosed Corporation Reinstatement.

Based on the enclosed and above referenced information and circumstances, the corporation maintains that the corporation should have been "active" during 2003 and maintained as active for 2004, upon submission of the enclosed appropriate filing fee (and attempted submission of the 2004 UBR - substituted with Corporate Reinstatement form).

If you have any questions, please contact the undersigned. We appreciate your attention to and assistance with this matter.

Sincerely,

John A. Coniglio
Accupay Services Corp.
