Re: Reinstatement of Independent Plumbers, Inc.
Document No. P02000098521

To Whom It May Concern:

I am sending you a Reinstatement application for my corporation with the help of a friend. I've also enclosed a check for the fee I should have paid last year with the Annual Report. I thought my sister had filed. I see that there are reinstatement fees and so I am writing to ask you to please waive those fees this one time.

When I started my new plumbing business, I was told by contractors that I should incorporate. So I did hire someone to help me do that. I hired my sister to take care of the bookwork and paper work. I couldn't afford professional help. I am ignorant of what I am supposed to do and my sister told me she did know. I don't even understand the instructions. I am a plumber - that is what I do best. I didn't find out until late last year that my sister wasn't doing her job the way she should. I just found out that my corporation had been terminated. With the help of a friend, I am trying to take care of everything I hired my sister to do. I am looking for professional help for my bookwork.

Since I am so ignorant of the laws and instructions and everything required of me, it's hard to know if someone I hire, who says they know, is doing the job right, until something goes wrong. I hope you will consider this. I'm doing my best to find someone who really does know, and hoping I won't have to find out the hard way if they are really doing it right. I'm definitely going to make sure I get references next time. And I am trying to get educated enough about the laws to at least know what to ask for.

Thank you in advance for considering my request to waive the reinstatement fees. I will appreciate a second chance. I now understand what it is you are requiring of me each year and I will make sure it gets done on time every year.

Sincerely,

Jerrald H. Butler
