Re: Uniform Business Report 2003

Dear Mr. Scott:

We represent Broken Finger Productions, Inc. After speaking with you on the telephone this morning, you informed me to write you a letter detailing the circumstances regarding the UBR for Broken Finger Productions, Inc. Our clients sent in the original UBR in February along with their check for $150.00. Your office promptly deposited that check for $150.00. Our clients failed to sign the original UBR and your office sent a second UBR to our clients along with a letter telling them to sign and return the UBR. Our clients promptly returned the signed UBR to your office within 10 days of receiving your letter. Please note that this occurred prior to the May 1st deadline. During our conversation today, you informed me that your office did not receive the signed UBR which was sent well within the 30-day period. That signed UBR must have been lost in the mail or by your office. Following, your office sent our client another UBR and asked them to sign it and return it with an additional late fee of $400.00. Our office resent you a signed UBR which was returned to our clients with a request for $400.00.

Enclosed please find the signed UBR. We kindly request that the late fee be waived since our clients provided the appropriate payment in February and sent a signed UBR prior to the deadline.

Your attention and consideration to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

David I. Beame. Esq
