ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The nature of the business and objects and purposes to be transacted, promoted and carried on for pecuniary profit, are to do any or all of the things herein mentioned, as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might do or could do in any part of the world, viz: the purpose of the corporation is to engage in any or all lawful activities or business permitted under the laws of the United States of America, the State of Florida, or any other state, country, territory or nation.

ARTICLE IV DURATION

This corporation shall have perpetual existence unless dissolved according to law commencing on the date all fees are paid and these subject Articles of Incorporation are filed by the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE V POWERS

In order to carry out the object and purposes above related in article THREE, and in addition to, but not in limitation of, all powers accorded by the General Corporation law of the State of Florida, the corporation shall have the power to:

- A. Sue and be sued in any court, and appear in any judicial or administrative proceedings for the assertion or protection of its interests;
- B. Have a corporate seal;
- C. Hold, purchase, convey and otherwise deal in or with movable and immovable property, that is, personal and real property, and any interest therein, withing and without the State of Florida, and mortgage or lease any such property or interest therein, with its franchises, withing the limits permitted by law;
- D. Apply for, acquire, hold, use, sell, mortgage, license and otherwise deal in or with letters, patents of the United State or any foreign nation, and all patents rights, licenses, privileges, inventions, improvements, processes, trade marks and trade names relating to or useful in connection with any business carried on by it;
- E. Appoint such officers and agents as the corporation may required, allow them suitable compensation, and remove them to the pleasure of the corporation;
- F. Guarantee third party obligations, whether natural or legal person;
- G. Make by-laws for the internal government of the corporation with power to alter, amend or repeal any of them from time to time;
- H. Dissolve itself, or to be dissolved in the manner provided by law;
- I. Conduct business within and without the State of Florida and maintain branch offices withing and without the State of Florida;
- J. Acquire in any manner, dispose of in any manner, guarantee, and otherwise deal with the shares of capital stock or instruments of obligation of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, and while the owner or holder thereof exercises all rights, powers and privileges relating thereto;
- K. Acquire in any manner, dispose of in any manner, guarantee, and otherwise deal with the whole or any part of the property, goodwill, franchise, business and assets of every type and nature, of any judicial or natural person, for the use and business of this corporation; and to guarantee, assume, undertake and pay the indebtedness and liabilities thereof;
- L. Organize and operate wholly or partly owned or controlled subsidiary corporations or other forms of business enterprise.

ARTICLE VI INCORPORATORS

ARTICLE VII MANAGEMENT

- A. Until the election of the Board of Directors, the Incorporator shall direct the affairs and organization of the corporation, and may take all steps that may be proper to perfect such organization, including the election of Directors. Thereafter, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors whose number (which shall not be less than two) and manner of election shall be determined by the by-laws of the corporation. The Directors need to be stockholders, and shall hold office from the time of their election of qualification until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. A majority of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except that the by-laws may provide that not less than one-third (1/3) of the total number of Directors, and in no event fewer than two Directors may constitute quorum.
- B. The Board of Directors may, by Resolution adopted by the majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, to consist of two (2) or more Directors which shall to the extent that may be designated in the Resolution, or in the by-laws, have and may exercise the power of the Board of Directors (other than the power to remove or elect Statutory Officers) in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the use of the seals to the corporation whenever necessary.
- C. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held outside of the State of Florida.
- D. The officers of the corporation shall be the President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary, who shall be chosen by the Directors and who shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified. The President shall be chosen from among the Directors. Any two officers (with the exception of the President and the Secretary) may be held by the same person. The corporation may have such Officers and Agents as are appropriate, who shall be chosen in such manner and hold their offices for such terms and upon such conditions as may be prescribed by the by-laws or determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any person within the corporation the power to select, appoint, employ, discharge, fix the terms and conditions of employment and salaries or compensation of any person not holding corporate office.

ARTICLE VIII PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

Every shareholder of this corporation shall have the right to purchase shares of the same kind, class or series of stock on this corporation that may from time to time be issued, including shares from the treasury of this corporation, in the ratio that the numbers of shares he holds at the time of issue bears to the total number of shares outstanding, exclusive of treasury shares.
