Dear Sir/Madam:

I am very sorry I was unable to file my Corporate Annual Report on a timely basis. My mother has a brain tumor and has been in and out of the hospital on a hectic schedule. I am responsible for taking her back and forth to and from the hospital and doctor appointments. She is cared for by me and I worry about her health and well being.

Needless to say, I have had a very difficult time concentrating on business. I was under a lot of pressure as she underwent surgery for her brain tumor, plus chemotherapy sessions. I have been distracted and not always cognizant of reporting deadlines.

I hope you will be kind enough to understand my situation. I respectfully request that you waive the $400 penalty for not being able to meet the May 1, 2003 deadline.

Thank you in advance for our understanding and cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Sandra Jemison, President
