Dear Ms. Dunlap;

Per our conversation today, this letter is a follow up restated that the notice enclosed with this letter was the first notice I received from the state regarding the payment of the 2003 UBR. As stated on the telephone, this was the first notice, no other notice was sent to me requesting payment. Also, as I mentioned, why would I not pay the first notice which was only $150.00 and default to pay the second notice which included the late fee.

I wish to retain my corporation and continue to do business in Florida, and I'm requesting again, that this late fee be waived and my check for the $158.75 be accepted. I appreciate any and all assistance you can provide in clearing up this matter.

Respectfully,
