Dear Sir or Madam:

On November 12, 2002 I Filed Articles of Amendment to Articles of Incorporation of: Immigration & Computer Services Corporation (document Number P02000109858) the motive of the Articles of amendment was to change the name of the corporation, the new name was: General Services Corporation.

On November 20, I called to your office and I was instructed to send a new Articles of Amendment because the name was not available.

I am enclosing with this letter, as instructed by your office, another Articles of Amendment with a new name without the 35.00 dollars fee because your office already cashed the check that I mailed with the first Articles of Amendment, thank you for your cooperation.
