To Whom may concern:

My name is Yamill Rodriguez and my corporation name is Everything by Yamill. This is my first time in business and I do not understand many laws and regulations and believe me its been overwhelming. I thought that the person who was helping with the paperwork and accounting knew all the procedures, but his help was not enough and he really did not care much about my small business. When I change to a professional accounting service that my friend recommended to me was when I found that I have not been paying all the taxes fees that I was supposed to pay. That is why I am paying them now but at the same time I am asking for forgiveness from you on the penalties for been late. My intention was never to escape from the responsibility of the law and the State. I have always been on time in all those matter concerns. Please understand that my business is very small and I am still trying to improve it and make more clients, but the economy it is not been to good and start a small business is too hard. At this time for me to pay the fine will be a terrible catastrophe. That is why I am asking for forgiveness. I am also sending a check for the amount of $150.00, but if I still need to pay the fine please call me or let me know if I can make a payment plan. I feel very sorry for the mistake and I hire a good accountant to help me understand and control all my paperwork and state laws. Forgive my ignorance in this matter. I promise it will never happen again. Thanks for your comprehension.

Sincerely Yours,

Yamill Rodriguez
