Dear Sirs:

Based on a conversation with your office this morning I am enclosing a duplicate of my 2005 Annual Report filing, copy of the check enclosed with the original filing, and a check to replace the original which I had mailed on April 15th. I discovered that you had never received this information when the check had not been cashed and I received a late notice. I am requesting waiver of the late fee as the originals were apparently misdirected by the postal service.

Thank you for your assistance. I can be reached at the above number if you should have any questions or require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Charles R. Schell
President
