Re: Southwest Florida Investments Corporation of Collier
Ref No.: P02000110677

Dear Ms. Roberts:

Pursuant to our conversation of earlier today, enclosed please find the following documents:

1. Letter from the Division - dated March 17, 2004 (original)
2. Our Application for Reinstatement - dated March 12, 2004 (original)
3. Our Letter Stating Division's Request for Information not Received and for Waiver of Reinstatement Fee - date March 12, 2004 (original)

As you can tell from the enclosed, our letter of March 12, 2004 was returned to us without consideration. Please take a moment to read our letter requesting waiver of the reinstatement fee and you will see that such request is made based on the corporation's not having received a letter from the Division requesting further information (FEIN) in the Spring of 2003.

We only recently learned that the corporation was administratively dissolved on September 19, 2003. Otherwise, this matter would have been resolved last year. Again, we were not aware of the Division's request for further information, or that it had administratively dissolved the corporation, until approximately two weeks ago.

Please contact me immediately via phone if there is anything you further require from us. My telephone number is 786-371-8229. Otherwise, I will anticipate receiving a certificate of status from you shortly. Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,

Samuel D. Blanco

Re: Petition to Reinstate and Waive Reinstatement Fee
Corp. Name: Southwest Florida Investments Corporation of Collier
Doc. No.: P02000110677
Federal EIN: 05-0538681

Dear Sir or Madam:

As per your telephonic instructions of 03/11/2004, enclosed please find an executed Corporation Reinstatement form and a check made payable to the Department of State in the amount of $158.75 which constitutes payment for:

1. $150.00 - 2004 Annual Report
2. $ 8.75 - Certificate of Status

Southwest Florida Investments Corporation of Collier hereby requests that the reinstatement fee of $600.00 be waived. This request is made as the corporation (Southwest Florida Investments Corporation of Collier) did not receive what we have recently learned was a request for additional information issued by the Division of Corporations.

During a recent telephone conversation with the Division, the undersigned learned that the Division had requested a Federal Employer Identification Number from the corporation in the Spring of 2003 and that none was provided. It is the position of the undersigned, all officers as well as the registered agent of the corporation that no such request was received by the corporation. Had such a request been received, the corporation would have immediately provided the Division with this minor, yet important, piece of data.

Please contact the undersigned at the address provided on this letterhead or on the application for reinstatement (same), or by telephone (786-371-8229) if you have any questions or if there is anything further required corporation to fully reinstate the corporation. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Samuel D. Blanco
