To Whom It May Concern:

I would greatly appreciate if you could waive the late fee because I did not understand prior notice of it being due. I thought that it was included when I first incorporated in November 7, 2002. This is the first time I will be filing the UBR in the state of Florida. I Theodore Tsistinas Jr am the President and owner of Prestige Wood Floors Inc. and I am now aware the filing date is Between January 1 and May 1 of the Year following my Incorporation, which was November 7, 2002.

In talking to your office on November 5 2003 I became aware that my request for filing late was rejected and that a letter to that effect was sent to the corporation address back in July. I would like to inform you that I never received that notice but was only sent the certificate of dissolution In October of this year. I sent a check for $158.75 back in July of 2003, which was cashed, and I assumed that everything was all right. I would greatly appreciate if you could waive the reinstatement fee. As you can imagine I am just starting my Business in Florida and could use your kind help in resolving this matter.

Thank you in advance for you kind consideration

Sincerely

Theodore Tsistinas Jr.

President & Owner
