Dear Sir or Madam:

My name is Ali Ghomshe and I am writing you on the behalf of A2 International, Inc, a Clearwater, Florida corporation (FEI#: 56-2309549). As the president of the company, I am in receipt of your notice to file a Uniform Business Report for the year 2003 (UBR). I noticed that the filing fee is $550 for late filing. After consulting with my accountant (Robert F. Cohen) I was able to confirm that neither he nor I received an initial notice to file a UBR in a timely fashion and avoid any penalties or late fees.

Since inception, I have made every effort to comply with the state's regulations as my and your records will indicate. My corporation filed 0 (Zero) activities for the fiscal-year 2002, and I am still struggling to survive as a small business starting out in the State of Florida. I need all the help I can get. Paying thrice the amount of a filing fee will certainly hamper my abilities to continue conducting business in our great state.

I am hereby petitioning the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations, to allow me to file the 2003 UBR under normal circumstances. I have enclosed a check for the amount of $150 as per the advice of my council, the normal fee for filing a UBR. I urge you to make this one time consideration, for A2 International, Inc. is a small company trying to start a fruitful business in the state of Florida, and cannot sustain the added hardship a late filing fee will impose on us.

I eagerly await your response. I can be reached for any questions or comments at my office in Pinellas County, at the following address:

A2-International, Inc.
PO BOX 1210,
Palm Harbor, FL 34682-1210,

or by phone at (727) 796-5799. I am prepared to do whatever you deem necessary to comply with the state's guidelines.

Cordially,

Ali M. Ghomshe, President
A2 International, Inc.
