Your letter 12/28/04

In accordance with your request we request reinstatement of this corporation effective for the years 2003, 2004 and 2005 due to reasonable cause as follows:

1. All correspondence to this business from your office has been directed to his office at 4100 Central Ave., St. Petersburg, Florida. Unfortunately you have not used the taxpayer's correct zip code which is 33711. Please see your correspondence and the taxpayer's check which reflects the correct zip code. In view of this erroneous zip code the U.S. Post Office did not always deliver the taxpayer's mail during this period.

2. During these years the taxpayer's former wife was employed by Roy James in his office in a secretarial position. She was employed during the same period he was legally separated from her and her divorce actions were pending in court against Mr. James. This was a difficult work relationship and resulted in numerous business transactions and other financial matters being overlooked and/or neglected by his office staff.

We are now forwarding you our check for the 2003/2004 years. You previously received our check for the year 2005 in the amount of $150.00. If you desire any further information we will provide it at your request.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

William H. Krodel EA, PA
