All corporations that are authorized to transact business in the State of Florida must file a yearly Uniform Business Report (UBR). The UBR contains information such as the mailing and principal address of the corporation, the registered agent and its address, the current officers/directors of the corporation, as well as their addresses, and the corporation's Federal Employer Identification number. The report is due in January of each year (regardless of the date of incorporation) and considered late after May 1st.

You can make a written request for a waiver of the late fee. Attach the request to a completed UBR, and submit with $150. The request will be reviewed, but it is not a guarantee the request will be honored. If the late fee is required, you will receive a letter advising so.

Thanks,

Lee

I recently tried to file my ubr apparently the attempt was unsuccessful. I received a new bill that was $400 higher than the original! I tried to contact you by phone but the message stated "due to budget cuts nobody will be able to assist you [or something to that effect] I am willing and able to pay the $150 [original amount] but unable to pay the $500 due to my own 'budget issues', is there any way I can do that? if not than the corp. can be dissolved - the corp. hasnt even been in existence for a calendar year and already I am receiving "late charges"! - please e-mail me back or call [352]694-3424 or [352]804-2716 - thanx - jeff lundman lundman enterprises.

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is written in an attempt to waive the late fee for filing the "UBR" form after May 1st. We are a newly formed corporation and somewhat unaware of all the filing requirements. I did attempt to file the "UBR" online and was unsuccessful in my attempt [as best as memory allows me to recall some pin number or something was needed that I didn't have]. The additional late charge is beyond what we can afford and if forced to pay it my only choice would be to let the corporation be dissolved. So it is my hope that you will accept the payment of $150 and waive the late fee at this time, and give you the assurance that in the future the filing the "UBR" will be done promptly. Enclosed is a check for $150, the "UBR" and the e-mail correspondence sent in regards to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jeff Lundman
