To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing you regarding the rejection of the corporations 2005 For Profit Corporation Annual Report. I recently found out over the phone that the corporations report was rejected. I never received any letter stating it was being rejected.

Please reinstate the corporations' status. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Stephen Feuerman

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you regarding the attached Notice of Dissolution for failure to file the 2005 annual report. It appears our accountant had an incorrect mailing address down for us. They mailed us an annual report during April, however we never received it. We corrected the error at the end of June, and I mailed in an annual report with the $150 fee (see the copy of the cleared check attached). I respectfully request that the dissolution be revoked. There was no intentional disregard for the law. I have attached another copy of annual report.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Stephen Feuerman
