Dear Ms. Hood:

On November 12, 2003 I received a notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation for non-filing of my 2003 Corporation annual report.

Please accept my apology for this oversight, as I was unaware that this application applied to my business. I became incorporated in 12/15/02, but did not open my place of business until April of 2003. I was under the impression that annual reporting for 2003 was not due until 2004 therefor I assumed that it was not applicable to my business.

I immediately called the 850-245-6059 and spoke with an attendant and requested a waiver of this fee. He recommended that I send it a check for $150.00 with the completed application form.

I would appreciate if you would kindly consider this request. My Christian Bookstore is very new and very small and I am still trying to get a handle on all of the fees and filings that are applicable. In addition, this first year I am working under a loss, and could not possibly afford $750.00. I am trusting the Lord that 2004 would be more profitable.

Thanks for your consideration,
Joyanna Weiland

Dear Sean:

I received your notice of November 25, 2003. Attached is my letter of November 14, 2003. Please note that I am a new Business that opened its doors in April 2003. I am sorry that I did not make myself clear in my attached letter. As I am a new business I was not aware of this filing nor did I receive the uniform business notices.

Can you please let me know what these forms are? I am not a uniform business neither do I know what these forms are.

I would be happy to comply if I knew what you are referring to or what these notices are. What are these supplemental fees for the years 1992 and forward. I only started my business in 2003.

Thank you for your help.
