~~Subject: Oran Enterprises II, Inc.; failure to receive your first notice~~

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am the vice president of Oran Enterprises II, Inc. We did not receive the first notice to file our very first uniform business report. We incorporated in 2002 and gave our business address in the articles of incorporation as 555 N.W. 95th Street, Miami, Florida 33150. Instead, your office apparently mailed the form to another address – our lawyer and registered agent's address. He incorporated this corporation and is very conscientious about these things. He has no record and no recollection of having received any notice prior to this second notice. You may verify from our articles of incorporations that we gave 555 N.W. 95th Street as our mailing address.

We respectfully ask that you waive the $400 late charge due to our not receiving the first notice. Enclosed please find our check for $150, along with the 2003 Uniform Business Report.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Oran Enterprises II, Inc.

John Timinsky
Vice President
