We request a reinstatement of this Corporation.

Upon our discovering that the Corporation had been dissolved, we immediately began investigating why the proper forms were not filed.

The officers assumed the accountant had filed and the accountant thought the officers had filed, when no notices or forms were seen. The reinstatement form was found in a file under a stack of other forms and paper than need to be addressed, it was the only Annual Report form found. The clerical person responsible for this has been replaced.

Please understand that this was mistake and was not intentional done.

Enclosed please find two checks for $150.00 the 2003 report period.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

James Spangler
Predident
