Re: Reinstatement TransNation Translations, Inc.

Dear Department of State:

As part of a routine inspection of my business records, it came to my attention that I had not filed a corporate annual statement in 2004. When I investigated the matter further I found out that my company is listed on your database as "inactive" because my 2003 corporate report had not been filed.

To that end, I contacted your office, where it was confirmed to me that you had received payment for my 2003 corporate annual report, but that you required my company's federal EIN. According to your examiner, the Department of State sent me a correction letter on April 12, 2003, requesting that information from me. Unfortunately, I NEVER RECEIVED THAT LETTER and therefore could not and did not respond to it.

As a result, and to correct this error, the agent instructed me to file for corporate reinstatement, indicating that I should request the $600 reinstatement fee be waived, inasmuch as I did file timely in 2003 and the Department of State received my payment. I have enclosed a copy of both sides of the check for your information. The agent also instructed me to send a $150 filing fee for 2004, and to request the $400 late fee be waived, since it was impossible for me to pay the filing fee since my company was listed as "inactive."

You will note that I paid 2003 Florida and US unemployment taxes on a timely basis, and filed a 2003 federal tax return for my company. I have also paid my full 2004 Florida unemployment obligation, thus indicating a) that my company is active and operating; and b) that I have not been remiss in meeting my obligations under the law.

Thank you very much for your assistance. Please feel free to contact me at 305.672.5392 if I can be of further assistance.

Regards,

Steven Hanley
