Dear Sirs,

Please accept my apology for not filing the Uniform Business Report by the due date of May 1, 2003.

I am owner of a new company, and became overwhelmed by the amount and complexity of the forms involved of owning my own business. I recently hired a bookkeeping company to assist me in the filing of all the tax forms and other forms needed to be compliant with the State of Florida. The Uniform Business Form was overlooked by me and put aside to be dealt with at a later date, not knowing of the severe financial penalties.

As you know, new businesses have a lot to learn and sometimes struggle for the first few years. Mine is no exception. I have been doing all that I can to keep my head above water, and keep the power on. To save on costs, I operate my business from home. My wife and I both work, and juggle our time with our business and our two children. Times have indeed been tough.

Next year, you can be assured the Uniform Business Report will be filed on time. This is a hard lesson learned. I am asking that the late filing fees be waived, to help get me get back on course and to stay there. Any help you can offer me will be greatly appreciated. I can be reached by telephone (321) 773-0549, or by fax (321) 773-0542.

Thank You,

Paul L. Bogen
