5. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

To purchase, sell, invest and deal in investments of all kinds, including investments and sales of both real and personal property;

To do any or all of the things herein set forth, and all things usual, necessary or proper in furtherance of or incidental to said business, to the same extent as natural persons might or could do in any part of the world, at wholesale or retail, as principal, agent, contractor, trustee or otherwise, and either alone or in company with others;

To carry on any other business, whether selling, manufacturing or otherwise, and to do all things not forbidden by the laws of the State of Florida, provided, however, that the Corporation is not being formed for any purpose which requires compliance with statutory provisions not a part of the Act which govern the formation of corporations and is not being organized for a purpose or purposes which require authorization under the laws or statutory regulations of the State of Florida by any office or commission other than the Office of the Secretary of State;

To be vested with all the rights and powers now or hereafter conferred upon such corporations by the laws of the State of Florida;

Issuances giving rise to such preemptive rights shall include any issuance of authorized but unissued shares, as well as the issuance of any treasury shares held by the Corporation. The price offered to each holder by reason of his preemptive rights shall be no less favorable than the price at which the shares are to be offered to others. Shares which have been offered to shareholders to satisfy their preemptive rights, but which are not purchased by them within thirty (30) days after receipt of a notice from the Corporation stating the price, terms and conditions upon which the shareholders may exercise their preemptive rights, may be thereafter issued or sold to any other person or persons at a price not less than the price at which they were offered to the shareholders.
