Dear Division of Corporations:

We have just received notice that we have not filed our 2004 Annual Report. This is the first notice of this that we have received. I called and spoke to your representative earlier today and he said that a notice should have gone out many months ago. Unfortunately, we received no such notice. We are a fairly new Florida corporation, and now that we know the procedure we will be sure to send in an Annual Report each January, whether or not we receive notice that it is due. Your representative suggested that we send a check for $150 together with this letter and request that you exempt us this year from the $400 penalty.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

John Baer
