Re: 2004 For Profit Corporation Annual Report

Gentlemen,

When I started my business in 2003 I hired Michael D. Arceneaux, Myrtle Arceneaux, CPA, 1323-A Lafayette Street, Cape Coral, FL 33904 to do my accounting and I gave him all my records.

Mr. Arceneaux assured me that he had filed all necessary documents for my Corporation.

Although I paid him what I consider to be very high fees I recently learned that Mr. Arceneaux had not prepared my corporate (subchapter S) Tax Return for 2003 and that he had not advised me at all regarding the filing of my 2004 Corporation Annual Report.

Upon learning that the return was not filed I asked Mr. Arceneaux for my records back and that I was changing accountants. He refused to return my records despite my several times asking him for my records.

Finally he did return my records in late May 2004, at which time I immediately hired my new accountant who advised me and prepared my 2004 For Profit Corporation Annual Report.

I have no idea why Mr. Arceneaux was holding my records or why he did not file my 2004 For Profit Annual Report or advise me accordingly.

Mr. Arceneaux and his firm are responsible for my filing this report late.

I respectfully ask that any late filing penalties be waived as I did the best I could to be sure all documents were filed timely and correctly.

Sincerely,

Loren Pensinger, President
