TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN :

I previously wrote a letter indicating how a major mail delivery failure from our local post offices made us suffered an unprecedented interruption of our usual mail reception. Because of it, I was unable to obtain my UBR before the May 1st deadline.

You can even check with our local post office located in Buena Vista, Miami. We registered with them several claims about this problem of theirs.

If your office cannot accept or understand this situation as a valid excuse for being late paying the 2005 UBR, which I never received, then I would respectfully request that you refund my $150.00 so I can reincorporate once my company has been dissolved for over a year.

Respectfully,

GERARD VACHEZ
President
