Dear Division of Corporations:

I received in the mail July 12, 2004 the post card regarding the Annual Report Notice and down loaded the documents today after getting the computer to respond due to a near by lighting strike.

I called the office and told the lady what had happen. She said to write the letter and enclose it with the $150.00 check.

Therefore enclosed find the check and the form per her instructions.

Allow me to make a suggestion. Small post cards easily get lost in the mail and have often been discarded because the post card becomes lodged in junk mail brochures that are unwanted mail. Something larger then a post card could elimiate (not totally) the possiblility of important documents being lost.

Thank You

Guy F. Craig
