To Whom It May Concern:

In January of 2003 I was advised that I should incorporate. I am a watercolor artist and I sale my paintings. Jerry Mitchell is a potter and he sales pottery. Our accountant at the time convinced us to incorporate. He filled out the necessary papers and we filed them. However we were never able to start doing business as a corporation. We had several personal problems which delayed trying to expand sales. We also found we do not have the potential to make a large income and that we do not have the need to be incorporated.

Thank you for your help clearing the corporation status.
