Ms. Becky McKnight:

I wrote on January 10, 2003 that The 437 North Halifax Condominium Association would like to change our status of incorporation from non-profit to profit. I enclosed the forms to dissolve the non-profit corporation we had been previously registered as and enclosed the form to incorporate as a for profit corporation. I received the letter from you stating our corporation status as a non-profit association has been dissolved. I enclosed what I thought was the appropriate forms with the appropriate fees.

On January 23, I received the enclosed letter from you. I hope I have answered all the questions in your letter.

Please contact me if any additional information or forms need to be completed.

Sincerely,

Teresa Bird
