Gentlemen:

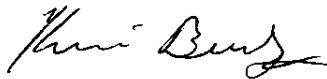

I am enclosing my corporation annual report with the payment of $150.00. I am aware that sending it after the first of May invokes a penalty of $400.00.

I did not know that an annual report was due. To my knowledge I did not receive the postcard advising of the requirement to submit the annual report by May 1st. It was only through casual conversation with a friend a few days ago that I became aware of the requirement and the deadline.

This is my first year as a corporation and would ask if you might make special consideration in this case. As you can see, I have changed the registered agent from myself to my father so that if I did inadvertently overlook the receipt of the postcard, it will not happen again.

Please accept my apology for the lateness of the report and if possible I would ask that the penalty be forgiven.

Sincerely yours,

Kevin Bundy
President
