Ladies and Gentlemen:

Enclosed are your letters returning the companies' annual reports for 2004, as well as the completed annual reports. The federal identification numbers have been added as instructed by your letters.

Unfortunately, the owner did not return the corrected report within 30 days of your original letter. Your letters were dated September 13, 2004, which was two days before Hurricane Ivan struck Bay County. Perhaps the distraction of the hurricane caused my client to overlook returning the reports. Whatever the reason, not returning the reports was unintentional.

We request that you waive the reinstatement penalty, under the circumstances, and accept the accompanying applications for reinstatement. You already have the annual fee of $150.00 on both corporations.

Thank you for your assistance and your consideration of our request.

Very truly yours,

Charles A. Tipton, Jr.
