RE: Return Of Requested Revisions To Articles Of Amendment For Filing

Dear Ms. White:

Enclosed you will find your original August 9, 2017 letter with the attached original Articles Of Amendment on which your request for my client Safe Sidewalks, Inc. to select another proposed amended corporate name has been made so as to change such proposed name from Farris Enterprises, Inc. (which was not available due to an apparent conflict) to Farris Trucking, Inc. which is available.

Though you received the related filing fee of $43.95 with the original attempted filing which has not been abandoned, I was not able to provide the foregoing revision earlier due to a severe accident which required three toes to be re-attached to my left foot from which I am just now recovering. When I contacted your office earlier today and explained the foregoing, I was told to return the enclosed documents which would be handled using the original filing fee which has been paid.

Since the attached original Articles Of Amendment provide in paragraph 5 that it only becomes effective when filed, your acceptance and filing of the same at your earliest convenience, preferably before January 1, 2018, would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dennis E. Hayes, P.A.
