 - (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, they had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.
- (b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not of itself determinative that the Director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.
- (c) The Corporation may not indemnify a Director under this section:
 - (1) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the Director is adjudged liable to the Corporation; or

- (d) Indemnification permitted under this section is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.
- (e) The Corporation shall indemnify a Director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defence of any proceeding to which they were a party to because of their role as a Director of the Corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred by them in connection with the proceeding.
- (f) The Corporation shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a Director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

- (1) the Director furnishes the Corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that they met the standard of conduct prescribed in this section,
