To Whom It May Concern:

While preparing my corporate tax returns for 2004, it was discovered that the corporation was dissolved for not filing annual reports. I have never received any notice for the annual reports. My accountant told me that it was probably being sent to the registered agent who never forwarded the notice to me. Enclosed is the proper reinstatement form and payment, as well as the correct, updated address information. A form similar to this was submitted last year, with payment (copy of proof of payment enclosed), as well as the updated address and registered agent information. So I am unsure why the payment was accepted, but not the correct address information. I am submitting another form with payment and the current address and registered agent, so there will hopefully be no problems in the future.

Sincerely,

Nevene O Turk -- President
