Please waive the $400 late fee, for which we never received an annual report. This is the first year in business and we had expected a hard copy form to be sent to us. It only came to our attention when our accountant told us about it when we filed our extended tax returns this year. Of which I tried to file on line – but it did not go thru so I called and talked to Katrina Sutphin, and she stated to send the form and check in and the fee would be waived.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Chris Houston
